

Please do not allow one entity to control several medias. Let's keep conversation and diversity alive in our region, for those things root us to the democratic principles that makes this country great.